“Congratulations” Message For PP Rtn Pramod Deshmukh

TEDx
Hi friends,
We had an opportunity to watch' our friend Pramod speak on the TEDx platform. It was a great experience to listen to him in person sitting in the audience. The topic was OMNIPRESENT INSPIRATION AROUND US. He was very impactful and presented it very well. The flow of his speech was superb and the content was very well written. The examples chosen were simple happenings around us and they illustrated the subject very well. The overall experience of listening to TEDx speakers was wonderful. The efforts taken by the school children and the teachers(Elpro International School) surely need special mention and appreciation. The complete programme was very meticulously planned with special attention given to minute details. The anchoring was done by the 9th std students. The school children from class 5-9 were given an opportunity to speak on the TEDx platform. Their speeches made us awestruck. It was indeed a great experience. Let us CONGRATULATE PP Pramod one more time for his great achievement. Three cheers to our PP Pramod Deshmukh

A man named Tom Nicholson posted on his Facebook account the sports car that he had just bought and how a man approached and told him that the money used to buy this car could've fed thousands of less fortunate people.

His response to this man made him famous on the internet. READ his story as stated on Facebook below:

A guy looked at my Corvette the other day and said,
"I wonder how many people could have been fed for the money that sports car cost?"

I replied I'm not sure;

it fed a lot of families in Bowling Green, Kentucky who built it,

it fed the people who make the tires,

it fed the people who made the components that went into it,

it fed the people in the copper mine who mined the copper for the wires, it fed people in at Caterpillar who make the trucks that haul the copper ore.

It fed the trucking people who hauled it from the plant to the dealer and fed the people working at the dealership and their families.

BUT,... I have to admit, I guess I really don't know how many people it fed.

That is the difference between capitalism and the welfare mentality.

When you buy something, you put money in people's pockets and give them dignity for their skills. When you give someone something for nothing, you rob them of their dignity and self-worth.

Capitalism is freely giving your money in exchange for something of value.

Socialism is having the government take your money against your will and give it to someone else for doing nothing.

Important Day's To Be Celebrated

14 March - International Day of Action for Rivers

Every year on 14 March, the International Day of Action for Rivers is observed to raise voice to protect rivers and demand for improving the policies for Rivers. It is a day to educate one another about the threats facing our rivers and to find solutions.

15 March - World Consumer Rights Day

It is observed on 15 March every year for raising global awareness about consumer rights and needs. This day is a chance to demand that the rights of all consumers are respected and protected and to protest against social injustices.

16 March - National Vaccination Day

On 16 March every year, National Vaccination Day is observed in India which is also known as National Immunisation Day (IMD). It was first observed on 16 March 1995 when the first dose of Oral Polio Vaccine was given. It is an attempt to increase awareness for the eradication of polio from the planet earth.

THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY

In view of the annual turnover of Rotary leadership each year, special effort is required to provide the 27,000 club leaders with appropriate instruction for the tasks they will assume. The annual district assembly is the major leadership training event in each Rotary district of the world.

The district assembly offers motivation, inspiration, Rotary information and new ideas for club officers, directors and key committee chairmen of each club. Some of the most experienced district leaders conduct informative discussions on all phases of Rotary administration and service projects. The assembly gives all participants valuable new ideas to make their club more effective and interesting. Usually eight to ten delegates from each club are invited to attend the training session.

Another important feature of a district assembly is a review by the incoming district governor of the program theme and emphasis of the new RI president for the coming year. District goals and objects are also described and plans are developed for their implementation.

The success of each Rotary club is frequently determined by the club's full representation and participation in the annual district assembly.

The Thread of Relationships

After the death of a jeweller, his family was in grave trouble. They did not have enough money even for food. One day, his wife gave her son a sapphire & diamond necklace and said - "Son, take this to your uncle's shop. Ask him to sell it and give us some money."

The son took that necklace and reached his uncle's shop. His uncle looked at the necklace thoroughly and said - "Son, tell your mother that the market is very slow right now. If she sells it after some time, she will get a good price." He gave him some money, and further said, "come and sit with me at the shop from tomorrow."

So, the next day onwards, the boy started going to the shop every day, and there he started learning how to test diamonds and gems.

Soon, he became a well-known connoisseur of diamonds. People started coming from far and wide to get their diamonds tested.

One day his uncle said, "Son, bring that necklace from your mother now...tell her that the market is good now, you will get a good price."

Taking the necklace from his mother, the young man tested it himself and found that it was a fake. He began to wonder that his uncle was such a great connoisseur...why didn't he inform them?

Leaving the necklace at home, he returned to the shop.

Uncle asked, "Didn't you bring the necklace?" He said, "Uncle, it's artificial... But why did you hide this from me?" Then his uncle said, "If I had told you it was fake when you had first brought the necklace to me, you would have thought that I was only doing it because you were in a difficult situation.

Today when you yourself have the knowledge, you know for sure that the necklace really is fake. At that time, it was more important for me to take care of the relations than to speak the truth."

The truth is that, without knowledge everything we think, see and know in this world is wrong. And because of this, our relationships become a victim of misunderstandings which then lead to rifts, and our life starts falling apart.

The invisible thread by which relationships are tied is nourished by love and trust.

"Don't leave someone's side at the slightest strain in relations..."

It takes a lifetime to make people your own."
