Know About Rotary

EXCHANGE OF CLUB BANNERS

One of the colorful traditions of many Rotary clubs is the exchange of small banners, flags or pennants. Rotarians traveling to distant locations often take banners to exchange at "make up" meetings as a token of friendship. Many clubs use the decorative banners they have received for attractive displays at club meetings and district events.

The Rotary International board recognized the growing popularity of the banner exchange back in 1959 and suggested that those clubs which participate in such exchanges give careful thought to the design of their banners in order that they be distinctive and expressive of the community and country of which the club is a part. It is recommended that banners include pictures, slogans or designs which portray the territorial area of the club.

The board was also mindful of the financial burden such exchange may impose upon some clubs, especially in popular areas where many visitors make up and request to exchange. In all instances, clubs are cautioned to exercise discretion and moderation in the exchange of banners in order that the financial obligations do not interfere with the basic service activities of the club.

Exchanging club banners is a very pleasant custom, especially when a creative and artistic banner tells an interesting story of community pride. The exchange of banners is a significant tradition of Rotary and serves as tangible symbol of our international fellowship.

Important Day's To Be Celebrated

Ann's Chit Chat By Ann Umaa Ranganaathan

Your thoughts are your Karma.....

A king was touring his kingdom on his elephant. Suddenly he stopped in front of a shop in the market and said to his minister, "I don't know why, but I want to hang the owner of this shop." The minister was shocked. But before he could ask the king why, the king had moved on.

The next day, the minister went to that shop dressed as one of the locals to see the shopkeeper. He casually asked him how his business was faring. The shopkeeper, a sandalwood merchant, reported sadly that he had hardly any customer. People would come to his shop, smell the sandalwood and then go away. They would even praise the quality of the sandalwood but rarely buy anything. His only hope was that the king would die soon. Then there would be a huge demand for sandalwood for performing his last rites. As he was the only sandalwood merchant around, he was sure the king's death would mean a windfall.

The minister now understood why the king had stopped in front of this shop and expressed a desire to kill the shopkeeper. Perhaps, the shopkeeper's negative thought vibration had subtly affected the king, who had, in turn, felt the same kind of negative thought arising within.

The minister; a noble man, pondered over the matter for a while. Without revealing who he was or what had happened the day before, he expressed a desire to buy some sandalwood. The shopkeeper was pleased. He wrapped the sandalwood and handed it over to the minister.

When the minister returned to the palace, he went straight to the court where the king was seated and reported that the sandalwood merchant had a gift for him. The king was surprised. When he opened the package, he was pleasantly surprised by the fine golden color of the sandalwood and its agreeable fragrance. Pleased, he sent some gold coins to the sandalwood merchant. The king also felt sorry in his heart that he had harbored unbecoming thoughts of killing the shopkeeper.

When the shopkeeper received the gold coins from the king, he was astounded. He began to proclaim the virtues of the king who had, through the gold coins, saved him from the brink of poverty. After some time, he recalled the morbid thoughts he had felt towards the king, and repented for having entertained such negative thoughts for his own personal goal.

If we have a good and kind thought for another person, that positive thought will come back to us in a favorable way. But if we harbor evil thoughts, those thoughts will come back to us as retribution.

अनूठी पहल

Carona vaccination awareness शायरी written behind on truck

ट्रक के पीछे जब हमारी गाड़ी होती है, तब कई बार पीछे लिखी रोचक शायरी पढ़ने को मिलती है। किसी ने 'ट्रकों पर कोरोना शायरी' की अनूठी पहल की है और यह कोरोना शायरी भी उसी रोचक और मौजी अंदाज में लिखी हैं। इसमें अनेक भावों के साथ वैक्सीन लगवाने और मास्क का निरंतर उपयोग करने के संदेश हैं।

"देखो मगर प्यार से...

कोरोना डरता है वैक्सीन की मार से"

--

"मैं खूबसूरत हूं मुझे नजर न लगाना

जिंदगी भर साथ दूंगी, वैक्सीन जरूर लगवाना"

--

"हंस मत पगली, प्यार हो जाएगा

टीका लगवा ले, कोरोना हार जाएगा"

--

"टीका लगवाओगे तो बार-बार मिलेंगे

लापरवाही करोगे तो हरिद्वार मिलेंगे"

--

"यदि करते रहना है सौंदर्य दर्शन रोज-रोज

तो पहले लगवा लो वैक्सीन के दोनों डोज"

--

"टीका नहीं लगवाने से

यमराज बहुत खुश होता है।"

"चलती है गाड़ी, उड़ती है धूल

वैक्सीन लगवा लो वरना होगी बड़ी भूल"

--

"बुरी नजर वाले तेरा मुंह काला

अच्छा होता है वैक्सीन लगवाने वाला"

--

"कोरोना से सावधानी हटी,

तो समझो सब्जी-पूड़ी बंटी"

"मालिक तो महान है, चमचो से परेशान है।

कोरोना से बचने का, टीका ही समाधान है।
